INDIANA UTILITY
REGULATORY COMMISSION

You are hereby notified that on this date the Presiding Officers in these Causes make the following Entry:

On March 11, 2004, Indiana Bell Telephone Company Incorporated, d/b/a/ SBC Indiana ("SBC Indiana") filed its Motion to Temporarily Stay All Triennial Review Proceedings ("Motion"). Because of the recent Court of Appeals decision (USTA v. FCC, No. 00-1012, D.C. Cir., March 2, 2004) that vacated portions of the FCC's Triennial Review Order, the Motion requests that the Commission (1) temporarily stay the proceedings in these Causes until the later of the denial of any petition for rehearing or rehearing in banc or until May 1, 2004, and (2) schedule a status hearing to be held in 60-90 days to address what, if any, further steps are appropriate.

An Entry was issued in these Causes on March 4, 2004, wherein we stated that these Causes would not be suspended or delayed due to the Court of Appeals decision, but that we would consider any additional information or events that may cause us to reevaluate the appropriateness of that determination.

Evidentiary Hearings in all of these Causes are scheduled to commence in April 2004, with April 5 being the earliest scheduled commencement date. Due to these impending Evidentiary Hearings and the relief sought in the Motion, we find it appropriate to condense the standard time periods found in the Commission's rules for responding to motions and replying to responses to motions, as follows: Any response to SBC Indiana's Motion should be filed on or before March 17, 2004, and any reply by SBC Indiana to a response should be filed on or before March 19, 2004.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
